The annual union Christmas program presented by the First Baptist and Galilee Sunday Schools Christmas Eve at the First Baptist Church was rated as the best presentation given in a number of years. All who witnessed the program enjoyed it. Mrs. T. W. Hamlet was director. She was assisted by Miss H. B. Stephens. At the close of the program, presentations were given to Rev. N. R. Jordan, by the Ladies Society of the church, by Mrs. Hamlet. The Sunday School also gave gifts to Miss Sarah Watkins and Deacon Charlie Coleman. Miss H. B. Stephens presented gifts to the supt. of the Galilee Sunday School and to its sexton. Bags and individual gifts were given to each child and parent present, by both schools. Remarks were given by Reverends C. A. Marshall Lawing and Jordan.

Funeral services were held at the Galilee Baptist Church for the late Mrs. Ellener Stevens Fleshman or Sunday at 2:00 P. M. She died at the Lynchburg General Hospital last Thursday morning. The deceased lived her entire life in Appomattox County. Resolutions and cards of sympathy were read by the Rev. N. R. Jordan, who also gave words of consolation to the family. Music was furnished by the church choir. The pastor of the church delivered the eulogy. She leaves the following to mourn their loss: a husband, four children, a mother and father, a grandfather, three sisters and five brothers and a host of other relatives and friends. The floral designs were beautiful. Burial was held in the community cemetery.

The annual church meeting will be held at the Galilee Church this Saturday at 8:00 P. M. The annual program of work will be presented. The budget of the church will be presented and all are asked to be present.

A large crowd attended the regular preaching services at the Promise Land Baptist Church last Sunday. The pastor delivered a special sermon. The choir rendered Christmas music. The offering was very good. A presentation was given to the pastor at the conclusion of the service.

An enjoyable Christmas tree program was given at the St. Luke Church Dec. 26, by Mrs. Rosa Hurtt and others. Rev. J. A. Shelton preached a Christmas sermon at St. Luke Church Dec. 27. The choir sang special hymns. Mrs. Ametha Jones was at the piano.

Turkey dinner guests in the home of deacon and Mrs. A. H. Claytor were Mrs. Conie V. Elliott, Mrs Maggie Harvey, Mrs. B. M. Elliott Mr. T. H. Nowlin and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Canada, Dec. 26.

Miss Curlene Cox, of N. J. financed a conference call by phone as a Christmas gift to her aunts and uncles and mother, as fololws (a 5 station hook-up) Dr. H. T. Elliott of Logan; Mrs. Agustus Jones, of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Rev. A. H. Elliott, of Baltimore, Md.; Miss Mary Elliott, N. Y.; and Mrs. Louise Canada, at Appomattox. They all talked to each other at the same time for about 25 minutes, Dec. 25.

Mrs. Louise Canada's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Hunter are very happy to have their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Johnson, of Brooklyn, N. Y., move into their home as companions for them in their declining age. Mrs. Johnson is a hair stylist. Mr. Johnson is an experienced plumber.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Canada have announced the birth of a son, Nov 29.

Mrs. Louise Canada will spend Sunday, Jan. 2, 1955, which is her birthday, at her home and attend her church there.

WHO HAS THE MONEY?

While Uncle Sam is hard-nosed in his insistence that nieces and nephews get their income-tax payments in on time, he himself is a little behind with his paper-work. An annual pamphlet, Statistics on Income, for the year 1950 has just come tardily from the press. It provides some rather revealing figures. In that year only 8 persons in this broad land had adjusted incomes of $5 million or more; 219 Americans reported revenues from a million dollars to $4,999,000. But the really significant point is that less than 1% of the population of the U. S. amassed $20,000 or more.

This is a rather dramatic answer to the frequently - encountered "soak the rich" argument. Sure —soak the rick—and then put them through the wringer. But when you have extracted every possible drop of rich bullioned blood, you'll have less than enough to transfuse the national budget over a rough week-end.

From this economic survey we may deduce a brief lesson, namely, to wit and as follows: In the final analysis, it is the earnings of the 99% —those who make less, and most of them a great deal less, than $2,000 a year—that must be counted on to keep your Uncle Sam in beans, bacon and bombs.

IN MEMORIAM
PAULETTE—In loving memory of our Daddy, P. O. Paulette, who passed away one year ago, December 30th.
Gone dear Daddy, gone forever,
How we miss your smiling face
But you left us to remember
None on earth can take your place.
A happy home we once enjoyed,
How sweet the memory still;
But death has left a lonliness,
The world can never fill.
—Children.
